Louisiana's Longest Known Married Couples

Norman and Norma Burmah remain Louisiana's longest known married couple. They have now been married 82 years. Though unable to attend, they were honored by Governor Bobby Jindal on Valentine's Day at a special recognition celebration held at the Governor's Mansion. He also recognized nine other couples there, married 73 years or longer. Two of those nine couples, Varrie and Lawrence Player, married 78 years, and Edgar and Mary Emma Bland, married 75 years, are from Shreveport. Our congratulations!

Defending the Faith - Linking Culture with Truth

Christianity's Most Dangerous Idea

"Seven Truths that Changed the World"

A Review of Kenneth Samples book

by

Stephen R. Patton, M.D.

Two hundred years ago the biblical doctrines of Christianity were common belief in the U.S.. Since then a profound shift of thought in Western culture has changed the common mindset. Atheist philosopher, Fredrick Nietzsche's declaration, "God is dead," and ideas embraced by Darwin's theory of evolution have changed mainstream thought. Their once dangerous ideas are now promoted by public education, secular media and the entertainment industry. Now Christianity is presenting the dangerous ideas. This reversal is the subject of a book, Seven Truths that Changed the World: Discovering Christianity's most Dangerous Ideas, written by Kenneth Samples, Ph.D.. He is a Christian theologian and scholar working with Reasons to Believe (www.reasons.org). Dr. Samples re-expresses the basic truths of the Christian faith that once revolutionized the world. The seven ideas are only "dangerous" to our unbelieving, post-Christian culture which has replaced them with secular thought.

Dr. Samples first discusses Christianity's most dangerous idea: "Not all dead men stay dead." Naturalism (only the physical world is real) proposes a desperate predicament: We will die soon, die alone, and stay dead forever after living a completely meaningless life. Furthermore, the universe will soon grow cold and die so all of humanity will become extinct. Such utter hopelessness is the natural end point of our world and universe if there is nothing more than the physical world.

The resurrection of Jesus completely reverses this hopeless and nihilistic thought. It stands as Christianity's most dangerous idea. Naturalists say that bodily resurrection from the dead is impossible, and it is... without God. But if the resurrection is true, it overturns naturalism and God becomes ultimate reality. Here is a brief summary of evidences that Dr. Samples outlines supporting the claim that Jesus rose from the dead.

1. The tomb was empty. As the gospel accounts testify and many non-biblical, ancient writings corroborate, Jesus' life ended in death by Roman crucifixion and was laid to rest in a tomb in Jerusalem. The fact that the tomb was empty three days later was never contested by those in Jerusalem who could have easily discredited the claim by producing Jesus' body. Instead, they argued that the body had been stolen.

2. Jesus' postmortem appearances. The large number and varying circumstances of multiple individuals who experienced Jesus' post-resurrection appearances are not easily dismissed as religious visions or hallucinations (Mark 16:6).

3. Short time frame between events and eyewitness claims. The gospels were written very soon following the events they record, not centuries later. If the recorded events had been manufactured, opponents of Christianity who were still living could easily have refuted them. They didn't.

4. Extraordinary transformation of the apostles. The apostles sacrificed their lives for their belief that the risen Jesus appeared to them. Only they were in the position to know if their claims were false. Although many are willing to die for their beliefs, few are willing to die for a lie.

5. Paul's conversion. Initially an enemy of Christianity, Paul believed he encountered the risen Jesus and died defending this claim.

6. Rapid emergence of the historic Christian Church. Dr. Samples points out that an explanation for this is required. The resurrection explains it.

7. Emergence of Sunday as a day of worship. Apart from the resurrection, no reason existed to replace Saturday (the Jewish Sabbath) with Sunday as a day more significant for worship.

The purpose of all this is not to detail each point favoring the claim that Jesus rose from the dead (better read the whole chapter for that). The purpose here is to briefly outline the reasonableness and large amount of evidence. Jesus' resurrection from the dead is reasonable, and well supported by a large body of verifiable evidence. This Easter, plan to worship in the full confidence of our risen Lord.

Can you Answer my Question?

Can you introduce me to the writings of apologist, Ravi Zacharias?

To do so very briefly here are three noteworthy quotes from books he has written. Visit www.rzim.org to learn more.

"The Samaritan woman grasped what He said with fervor that came from an awareness of her real need. The transaction was fascinating. She has come with a bucket. He sent her back with a spring of living water. She had come as a reject. He sent her back being accepted by God Himself. She came wounded. He sent her back whole. She came laden with questions. He sent her back as a source for answers. She came living a life of quiet desperation. She ran back overflowing with hope. The disciples missed it all. It was lunchtime for them."

|| Ravi Zacharias, Jesus Among Other Gods: The Absolute Claims of the Christian Message

"I think the reason we sometimes have the false sense that God is so far away is because that is where we have put him. We have kept him at a distance, and then when we are in need and call on him in prayer, we wonder where he is. He is exactly where we left him."

|| Ravi Zacharias, Has Christianity Failed You?

"I thank the Lord that, even though things were so wrong in my life here, I finally was brought to the realization of what all those struggles were about. There are some wonderful things from your painful past, things with a beauty you may not have realized at the time."

Origami Craft Cards Teach Children the Resurrection Story

HIGH POINT, N.C., Feb. 26, 2013 /Christian Newswire/ -- Memory Cross has created two new craft coloring cards that help children learn the resurrection story and the last week in the earthly life of Jesus. Both cards are designed using Memory Cross' unique four panel design. The design consists of four panels that fold to make an infinite loop, which captures the attention of children as well as adults.

The Holy Week card starts with Jesus riding into Jerusalem on a colt and covers Passover, the garden of Gethsemane, the arrest of Jesus, and his sentencing by Pilate.

The Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus starts with Jesus being sentenced and depicts the events of his crucifixion, burial and resurrection.

Holy Week and the Crucifixion and Resurrection cards are the newest additions to an existing line of Easter tracts and coloring cards. They are all designed to help children understand the significance of the Easter Story.

They are being used by churches for Easter Egg hunts, Sunday School, Children's Church and for stations of the cross. Parents are also using the cards to help their kids understand the Easter Story.

About Memory Cross: Memory Cross creates unique cards that never stop folding. The design is used for tracts, Bible stories and Scripture memorization cards. Memory Cross: Sharing the Gospel in a fun and creative way. The website is: www.memorycross.com.

Home Run - The Movie

By
Melanie Morrow

When I was given the opportunity to visit the set of the movie HOME RUN, my first thought was oh another baseball movie. But after spending a couple of days on location speaking with the cast and crew I realize that this movie is so much more than just another baseball movie. This movie is a sports story, a love story and a story of redemption.

Home Run tells the story of Cory Brand (Scott Elrod) a big league baseball player who struggles with alcoholism. His past is riddled with problems including having an abusive alcoholic father. Cory is suspended from baseball when his out of control drinking collides with his rage. His suspension forces him to seek help and Celebrate Recovery is the only option available to him. Through the character of Cory Brand the viewers will realize that personal transformation is possible. This character is a strong-willed, tough know it all who doesn't need anything from anyone--yet deep inside is damaged, scared, unsure and struggling. For years, Cory hides his pain until one day it explodes. He uses anger to cover up what he is really feeling. This character craves approval and feeds this need for approval by playing baseball really well. As the movie unfolds, Cory is eventually forced to deal with his demons.

Can people really change? This movie explores the challenges that Cory Brand faces from losing everything to discovering what really matters. Home Run explores this transformation and reveals that there doesn't have to be shame along the journey.

Producer Carol Mathews and her producing partner Tom Newman develop "projects that matter." Carol was inspired to produce a feature film giving hope to those suffering from addiction.

"We want people who feel imprisoned by their choices or habits to know they don't have to carry that burden alone anymore," Mathews said. "We hope people will sit in the theater and see themselves, and will consider that whatever holds them back, God can heal it. Change is possible."

The faith message is developed in this movie by means of the Celebrate Recovery program. Celebrate Recovery was founded in 1991 by John and

"Home Run reminds us of the power of forgiveness, the richness of redemption, and the wisdom of trusting God to revive us."

Max Lucado, Pastor and Best-Selling Author

Cheryl Baker. While John Baker was attending Alcoholics Anonymous he longed for a Biblically based, Christ-centered program. His thoughts were expressed in a 13-page letter to Saddleback Senior Pastor Rick Warren. Warren's response was, "John, you do it." Today, there are 19,000 individual churches and organizations hosting programs worldwide. More than 700,000 people have completed the program. The mission of Celebrate Recovery is to take a lost broken person, introduce them to the saving power of Christ and teach them how to grow into a fully devoted follower of Christ. The door to recovery is opened by spending time together sharing experiences, strengths and hopes with one another and celebrating God's healing power in our lives.

During my visit to Tulsa, Oklahoma I was fortunate enough to attend a Celebrate Recovery meeting. I witnessed people sharing stories of abuse and addiction while being supported by those around them. There is no need to suffer in silence because there are people who love you and will walk with you on your journey. They feel you can love the sinner, not the sin. Real recovery testimonies from addicts are used in the movie Home Run.

One of the scenes I had the opportunity to see being filmed in the West Tulsa United Methodist Church was that of Cory and Karen giving their testimony. Karen Brand is played by Nicole Leigh and is Cory's sister-in-law. Cory has no idea of the burden she has carried until the day her secret is revealed. Clay Brand played by Jim Devoti is Cory's younger brother who wants Cory to start making better choices. Dorian Brown plays the girl that Cory left behind and Charles Henry Wyson plays the son that Cory Brand never acknowledged. Vivica A. Fox plays the role of Helene Landy, Cory's go getter agent whose only goal is to get Cory back on the field.

I also had the opportunity to speak with the director and cinematographer David Boyd before shooting began at Driller's stadium in Tulsa. David is known for his work on the television series Friday Night Lights, Firefly and most recently The Walking Dead. David explained that after receiving a call from Carol Mathews, he read the script and thought it was a great story and was excited to be a part of this project. David Boyd's hope is that the viewers walk out feeling encouraged and believing that there is always hope. Transformation can happen.

Home Run the movie is a feel good, Christian based family film that will be an inspiration to all. The film gives hope to those suffering from addiction. This is a movie about baseball, love and encouragement. A must see movie that will undoubtedly score big.

An Open Letter Regarding Celebrate Recovery and the Movie Home Run

WOW! It has been quite a ride since my wife and I first started attending Celebrate Recovery. I remember the day that the program was first introduced at Church at Red River, in Shreveport.

After seeing the emotional healing through this twelve step, Christ oriented program, both of us thought this would be a great avenue for us to help others.

Well, there have been a lot of surprises in the past seven years since we first stepped out to assist others who've been injured emotionally. Our realization was huge. Oh my gosh, we ALL need healing from life's hurts.

First and foremost, my wife Diane and I realized that Christ wanted to reveal and heal life's hurts within us - before we attempted to be helpful to others. Secondly, we saw others being healed of many forms of hurts, habits, hang-ups, and addictions, and we wanted to share that with our Christian family. Thirdly, we knew the Lord wanted to heal families broken apart due to the actions and, in many cases, the inactions of family members involved. God does truly restore the years that the locusts have devoured. The Bible verse, Joel 2:2 is true. "I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten - the great locust and the young locust, the other locusts and the locust swarm - my great army that I sent among you." (New International Version) These three factors have been our motivation to pursue healing for ourselves as well as in others.

Our church, Church at Red River, has supported financially, spiritually, physically and emotionally the people who have come forth to receive healing through this dynamic Christ centered ministry. Celebrate Recovery at CARR has grown from the 13 people who first offered themselves to this ministry to a thriving community of 125 men, women, youth and children. On any given Friday night you will see 85 to 110 people meeting there to fellowship, worship, and learn more of Christ's healing power. In small groups they discuss their successes and failures.

James 5:16 (NIV) says "Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective." This verse is fundamental to healing once we confess our sins to God. "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9 (NIV)

There are other churches in the area that are active in Celebrate Recovery. First Baptist Church in Bossier meets each Monday night at six. Sean Gregory, the Ministry Leader there, has experienced the same success that we have seen due to prayer and the dedication given to "broken" people. First Baptist Church of Minden meets on Tuesday evenings and has been active for the past ten years. Also, Trees Baptist Church, located between Oil City and Vivian, LA, meets each Friday evening.

Celebrate Recovery is in its 21st year and is now in over 10,000 churches in the US. It is also in 21 foreign countries.

Although the movie Home Run is not a part of Celebrate Recovery, it does highlight the ministry and shows the healing power of Jesus through this Christ based program. The directors and driving forces behind the movie were each members of a Celebrate Recovery group. While going through CR they realized the powerful effect Christ had in healing their lives as well as the other participants.

It is our prayer and hope that those who see Home Run, (Christian and non-Christian alike), will realize that healing is available and will join in and receive the freedom we enjoy. In addition, my wife and I are hopeful for the opportunity to personally discuss with other churches how they can be involved in supporting a CR in their community.

The Fuller Center is an ecumenical Christian organization that bases its work on what Fuller Center founder Millard Fuller called, "The Economics of Jesus" and "The Theology of the Hammer." We work in partnership with people around the world, of all faiths and backgrounds, to build God's Kingdom on earth by improving and transforming lives.

You don't have to be a Christian to be affiliated with The Fuller Center. We work with people of all faiths who share our basic belief in giving dignity to all by helping them own a home.

Veterans Build 2013 in Shreveport: The Fuller Center for Housing of Northwest Louisiana needs volunteers and donations for the building of four

The Fuller Center for Housing of Northwest Louisiana has built 44 homes in Shreveport and utterly transformed the once crime-ridden Allendale community.

Millard Fuller Legacy Build 2013 in Atlantic City, N.J.: The Christian housing ministry The Fuller Center for Housing pays tribute to its late founder Millard Fuller with an annual blitz build. ## Faith Moving Mountains Ministry

Staff Writer

Faith Moving Mountains' first annual distribution day was July 21, 2012. It came about, by a young woman stepping out on an idea she felt was from God. On that day in July, the ministry provided new or gently used uniforms and school supplies to more than 350 children in the South Bossier area. God made this possible through some financial donations from individuals within our community and the contributions and labor of seven churches working together.

This ministry really isn't about uniforms and supplies. It's about Christians being a light. In "The Message," Matthew 5:14-16 reads this way:

"Here's another way to put it: You're here to be light, bringing out the God-colors in the world. God is not a secret to be kept. We're going public with this, as public as a city on a hill. If I make you light-bearers, you don't think I'm going to hide you under a bucket, do you? I'm putting you on a light stand. Now that I've put you there on a hilltop, on a light stand—shine! Keep open house; be generous with your lives. By opening up to others, you'll prompt people to open up with God, this generous Father in heaven."

This ministry's service provides the opportunity to love on these families who need some assistance and tell them how much God loves them.

It's also an opportunity to put aside our denominational/theological differences and become the "church" Christ has called us to be. Feeling that God is expanding this ministry to North Bossier and possibly Haughton, the current goal is to reach over 1,000 families for Christ this year. Faith Moving Mountains is looking for churches to join with them in this endeavor. As long as the church is Christ centered, it doesn't matter what size or denomination it is. What is needed is a willingness to say "Yes Lord, we'll go." Any church interested in being a part of this life changing ministry can call 741-5651 for additional information. Come, join us and let's be a light to our community!

Operation Christmas Child 2012 Report

Praise God for His faithfulness and provision. In 2012, Operation Christmas Child worldwide collected over 9 million shoe box gifts that will be distributed to hurting children around the world. Here in the United States, 6,549,826 shoe box gifts were collected, exceeding our goal of 6.5 million. In Texas and Louisiana, God's people rose to the challenge and exceeded the goal of 500,001 shoe boxes by collecting 512,289.

Each box represents a child who will receive a touch of God's love and the presentation of the gospel of Jesus Christ. In addition, children are offered an opportunity to participate in "The Greatest Journey" discipleship program. Last year 738,663 participants, throughout 80 countries and 62 different languages, completed the 12 lesson program receiving a recognition certificate and a bible! These graduates are now ambassadors and evangelists for the gospel to their families and within their communities. Join us in praising the Lord for his provision.

A major milestone was achieved last year as the 100 millionth shoe box was collected since the project started in 1993. Check out this video on the impact of 100 million shoe boxes at <http://youtu.be/TOOzSIDvU-I>. In 2013, OCC will host a celebration of what the Lord has accomplished over the past 20 years. On April 4-7, at the International CONNECT Conference!, partners worldwide will gather in Orlando to celebrate, worship the Lord, and prepare to collect the next 100 million shoe boxes and saturate the world with disciples! If you are a Connect Partner please plan to attend this dynamic and once in a lifetime event. For more information on CONNECT and all things OCC, visit: www.occ-connect.org.

Pray for the distribution of 9 million shoe boxes in over 100 countries and those who will participate in "The Greatest Journey" in 2013.
